

$50,000 THEFTS IN GEMS LAID TO A "RAFFLES"

Mrs. Greer's $5,000 Diamond
Pin Latest Bit of Jewelry
Mysteriously Missing.

The theft of gems valued at more than $50,000 within a month from the summer homes of wealthy New Yorkers on Long Island led to the theory today that a "Raffles" has invaded the society colonies. Private detectives are aiding the police in a search for the thief and for the missing jewelry.

Mrs. William A. Greer of Oyster Bay, with a town house at No. 1155 Park Avenue, is the latest victim. Though the theft happened last Saturday and has been kept secret, it was learned today, that a platinum bar pin, set with sixteen diamonds and valued at about $5,000, is missing.

Last Saturday Mrs. Greer attended the wedding of Miss Jane Molson at Locust Valley. She wore the pin to fasten a Spanish shawl. She told the detectives she removed the shawl and put the pin in a bag. After the wedding she visited friends near Oyster Bay. On her return home the bag was missing. Inquiry of the Molson home and the friends she visited failed to reveal any trace of it. A reward of $1,500 and "no questions asked" also has been without result.

Mrs. E. T. Fox of Glen Cove, about thirty days ago, after a visit to her sister at Oyster Bay, returned to her Glen Cove home to discover her diamond bow pin missing. She has employed private detectives and offered a substantial reward, but has heard nothing of the pin since.

Mrs. Charles L. Tiffany, No. 43 Park Avenue, two weeks ago came to the city from her Oyster Bay home wearing a pearl necklace. When she returned to Oyster Bay the necklace had disappeared.

It was valued at $45,000, and a reward of several thousand dollars has been offered for its return.

SAY GANG INSULTS WOMEN.

Alleged Member Held as Gun
Toter After Squabble With Blacocat.

William Scully, twenty-eight, a longshoreman, of No. 455 West 15th Street, was arraigned this morning in Jefferson Market Court, charged with violating the Sullivan Law. Patrolman Edward Mullins said complaints had been made of a gang at 17th Street and Ninth Avenue insulting passing women. The cop reached the corner after midnight and told the gang to scatter, which it did in an automobile. Mullins says he heard Scully remark: "I'll get him."

The auto returned a little later, and the cop says Scully was insulting. The policeman chased him into a house, where the cop says he pulled a revolver. Mullins subdued him.

TRIED SUICIDE BY GAS.

Herbert "Willie" Music Box to Sister-in-Law—Will Recover.
"Please give my music box to my sister-in-law."
Leaving this note, scribbled with a pencil, John Herbert, thirty-five years old, a laborer who lived alone in two furnished rooms in the basement of No. 432 East 16th Street, attempted suicide last night by turning on four gas jets. He was found unconscious by Ernest Hyman, janitor of the house, and taken to Bellevue Hospital. He will recover. There was nothing to show the name or address of Herbert's sister-in-law or the motive for his act.
